CREATING AN ARMY WITH THE MORTEM ET GLORIAM ARMY LISTS

Use the army lists to create your own customised armies using the Mortem et Gloriam Army Builder.

There are few general rules to follow:

1. An army must have at least 2 generals and can have no more than 4.
2. You must take at least the minimum of any troops noted and may not go beyond the maximum of any.
3. No army may have more than two generals who are Talented or better.
4. Unless specified otherwise, all elements in a UG must be classified identically. Unless specified otherwise, if an optional characteristic is taken, it must be taken by all the elements in the UG for which that optional characteristic is available.
5. Any UGs can be downgraded by one quality grade and/or by one shooting skill (Skilled to Experienced or Experienced to Unskilled) representing less strong, tired, or understrength troops. If any bases are downgraded all in the UG must be downgraded. So Average-Experienced skirmishers can always be downgraded to Poor-Unskilled.
6. Points are shown for troops with all mandatory characteristics applied. Points have been rounded to the nearest whole number. If quality or shooting skill is downgraded, then the points (including the points for any optional characteristics) will need to be adjusted.
7. An army entirely of Cavalry, Chariots, Camelry or Infantry with the Dismountable characteristic may choose the No Camp option.

Where allies are allowed, they must conform to the following rules:

1. An ally must be a minimum of 2 and a maximum of 4 UGs.
2. They must take enough UGs to get them to at least 50% of the minimums in the list being used.
3. They can thereafter take any troops up to the maximum to create the rest of the allied contingent.
4. Unless specified in the notes, the general must be the same type as the army commander in their own army's list but cannot be legendary.

Usually this results in 1-3 UGs being compulsory and you having full flexibility on the rest.

Where an internal ally is allowed, and no contingent is specified they must conform to the following rules:

1. Each internal ally must be a minimum of 2 and a maximum of 4 UGs.
2. The total number of troops taken of each type in the entire army must not exceed the maxima for that troop type.
3. They must take enough UGs to get them to at least 50% of the minimums in the list if there is enough allowance for a UG after the core army itself has taken the minimum. For example: An army has 4-12 cavalry (UG size 4,6) and 18-32 spearmen (UG size 6,8,9) as compulsory troops with 2 internal allies. The core army must take 4 cavalry and at least 18 spearmen. The first ally must take 4 cavalry and at least 9 spearmen. The second ally must take 4 cavalry but cannot take the 9 spearmen as this would exceed the 32 spearmen limit for the army.

4. If a list requires a proportion of a troop type to be upgraded or regraded, then the army as a whole must comply with this requirement. Internal allies do not have to comply these requirements. For example: $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{3}{4}$ of Turcomans must be upgraded from Experienced to Skilled shooting. An internal ally might have all Experienced as long as the army as a whole has $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{3}{4}$ Skilled.
5. They can thereafter take any troops up to the maximum to create the rest of the allied contingent.

Usually this results in 1-3 UGs being compulsory and you having full flexibility on the rest.

As a courtesy to your opponent when you deploy your troops, you should describe each UG fully; type, training, quality, protection, melee weaponry, shooting skill and weaponry and characteristics. You should also explain how any unusual troop types in your army function and any special rules including Stakes, Caltrops, Barricades and Obstacles and troop types such as Battle Wagons.

The easiest way to calculate points is to use the downloadable on-line army builder at www.mortem-et-gloriam.co.uk. Use this and all you do is use drop downs for the troop classifications and it does all the work for you. For those who prefer pen and paper, or who want to doodle some approximate designs before loading an army up, we have provided the points values with the lists. If a discrepancy exists in the points values between these lists and the army builder, then the army builder has the correct value.

OPEN COMPETITIONS

Where Renatio et Gloriam and Mortem et Gloriam open competitions are held at the same time, it is recommended that the Italian Wars lists are included in the ReG competition and excluded from the MeG competition in the interests of play balance.

FRIENDLY AND SCENARIO GAMES

Feel free to vary the troop classifications for friendly and scenario games. An interesting aspect of scenario games can be to see what the effect is from representing troops in a different manner.

HISTORICAL INTRODUCTION

In 1474, Charles the Bold of Burgundy quarrelled with the Swiss, who supported the free towns in the Upper Rhine in their revolt against the tyranny of the ducal governor. He also antagonized René II, Duke of Lorraine, with whom he disputed the succession in the Duchy of Lorraine, which bordered many of his territories. These enemies readily joined forces against their common adversary Charles. Charles seized Nancy in November 1475 and then marched against the Swiss. At Grandson he was attacked by the Swiss confederate army and defeated. Charles succeeded in raising a fresh army of 30,000 men that he used to fight at Morat on 22 June 1476. He was again defeated by the Swiss army, which was assisted by the cavalry of the Duke of Lorraine. On 6 October, Charles lost Nancy, which the Duke of Lorraine recovered. Charles formed a new army and arrived before the walls of Nancy. He met the joint forces of the Lorrainers and the Swiss, who had come to the relief of the town, at the Battle of Nancy on 5 January 1477. He perished in the fight. Charles left his unmarried nineteen-year-old daughter, Mary, as his heir. The French king Louis focused on seizing the Duchy of Burgundy (a French fief) whilst the Holy Roman Emperor secured the hand of Mary for his son Maximilian. As a result, much of the Burgundian territories passed to the Holy Roman Empire. This led to the border of France and Germany becoming a matter of dispute that was only resolved in 1945.

Mary of Burgundy inherited the Duchy on the death of Charles the Bold. Louis XI of France wanted her to marry his son (the six-year old who was later to become Charles VIII) but the terms were unacceptable. Mary had to sign a charter of rights for the Low Countries, weakening the power of the Duchy. Mary chose to marry Archduke Maximilian of Austria at the end of 1477, a choice that would initiate two centuries of contention between France and the Habsburgs and ultimately end in the War of the Spanish Succession in 1701 to 1714. Mary was succeeded by her son Philip who became Philip I of Castile through marriage.

In France in 1483 Louis XI died and was succeeded by Charles VIII who was only 13 at the time. His elder sister Anne of France acted as regent jointly with her husband Peter II, Duke of Bourbon until 1491 when the young king turned 21 years of age. During Anne's regency, the great lords rebelled against royal centralisation efforts in a conflict known as the Mad War (1485 to 1488), which resulted in a victory for the royal government.

Charles married Anne of Brittany in 1491 after she had already been married by proxy to the Habsburg Holy Roman Emperor Maximilian I. Preoccupied by succession to the throne of Hungary, Maximilian did not press his claim.

In England, Henry VII had been securing his position on the throne since Bosworth in 1485. In 1492 he invaded France and laid siege to Boulogne. The French agreed to the Treaty of Etaples where Henry abandoned his support for the Bretons and the French paid an indemnity of 742,000 crowns payable at 50,000 crowns per annum and withdrew their support for the pretender Perkin Warbeck.

In Scotland, James IV proved an effective ruler, finally bringing the Lord of the Isles under control in 1493. He supported Perkin Warbeck for a time but then established good relations with both England and France. However, when Henry VIII invaded France in 1509 James reacted by invading England. James was killed at the disastrous battle of Flodden on 9 September 1513, leaving a son under 2 years old as King.

In 1494, Charles VIII invaded Italy with the aim of conquering Naples. He justified this by the Angevin claim on the throne of Naples. Initially successful, he was forced to withdraw due to a coalition of Italian States known as the League of Venice. Italian Wars would dominate Western European politics for over 50 years.

Isabella I of Castile ruled from 1474 until her death in 1504. Her marriage to Ferdinand II of Aragon became the basis for the political unification of Spain under their grandson, Charles I. Only Granada was left for Isabella and Ferdinand to conquer. It took ten years to conquer Granada culminating in 1492. The focus of Spanish policy then switched to Italy with the aim of regaining the Kingdom of Naples. Spain joined the League of Venice to oppose France in 1495, breaking the Treaty of Barcelona signed only two years earlier.

The Swabian League (Schwäbischer Bund) was a mutual defence and peace keeping association of Imperial Estates – free Imperial cities, prelates, principalities and knights – principally in the territory of the early medieval stem duchy of Swabia, established in 1488 at the behest of Emperor Frederick III of Habsburg. It consisted of 22 Imperial cities, the Swabian knights' League of St. George's Shield, bishops and princes. It had an army of up to 13,000 men. It was the main support of Maximilian in southern Germany. In the Swabian War of January to July 1499 it fought and was defeated by the Swiss in almost every encounter.

In 1499 Charles' successor Louis XII invaded Italy to claim the throne of Milan as well as Naples. Initially successful again, the French were defeated by Córdoba at the battles of Cerignola and Garigliano. The next phase of the war saw a grand alliance known as the League of Cambrai formed against the power of Venice. The main contribution was made by the French who defeated the Venetian army at Agnadello in 1509. This success resulted in a new coalition, the Holy League, to fight the French, who themselves allied with the Venetians. The French suffered several defeats, but in 1513 the Holy League started to fragment. After defeating the Swiss at Marignano in 1515, a peace treaty was negotiated.

MAXIMUS ARMY LISTS

CALCULATING POINTS

Army points are calculated as follows:

GENERALS - MAXIMUS

Type of general	Army Commander		Sub-general		Ally general
	Professional	Instinctive	Professional	Instinctive	Professional	Instinctive
Legendary	1600	1400	n/a	n/a	800	700
Talented	1100	900	850	700	650	600
Competent	700	550	600	450	300	250
Mediocre	250	0	400	250	100	50

CAMPS

Type of camp	Poor	Average	Superior
Unfortified	108	180	252
Fortified	216	360	504
Flexible	180	300	420
Mobile	126	210	294
No camp	378	N/A	N/A

A flexible camp is deployed as a fortified camp when defending and a mobile camp when invading.
No camp deploys a poor mobile camp when defending and no camp at all when invading.

UGs

For each UG multiply the cost shown in the list (adjusting for any optional characteristics) by the number of bases.

NOTES

1. Points values for skirmishers in Magna and Pacto are greater than in Maximus as SuGs shoot at full effect with only two ranks.
2. For further details on how points are calculated visit the Mortem et Gloriam website.

LATE SWISS

1474 TO 1522 CE

HISTORICAL NOTES

This list covers Swiss armies from the League of Constance until the disastrous battle of Bicocca in 1522 finally ended Swiss battlefield supremacy. It also includes the League of the Graubünden (Grisons), who fought in alliance with the Swiss (and in Swiss style) during the Swabian War, of 1499.

TROOP NOTES

With their series of victories against the Burgundians, the Swiss developed a fearsome reputation that altered the nature of warfare over the next century. The core of Swiss armies became fast moving large blocks of pikemen.

LATER CASTILIAN

1477 TO 1497 CE

HISTORICAL NOTES

Isabella I of Castille ruled from 1474 CE until her death in 1504. Her marriage to Ferdinand II of Aragon became the basis for the political unification of Spain under their grandson, Charles I. Isabella's first major reform came during the cortes of Madrigal in 1476 in the form of a police force, La Santa Hermandad (the Holy Brotherhood). At the end of the Reconquista, only Granada was left for Isabella and Ferdinand to conquer. It took ten years to conquer Granada culminating in 1492. The focus of Spanish policy then switched to Italy with the aim of regaining the Kingdom of Naples. Spain joined the League of Venice to oppose France in 1495, breaking the Treaty of Barcelona signed only two years earlier.

TROOP NOTES

The Spanish monarchs recruited soldiers from many European countries and improved their artillery with the latest and best cannons. Pikemen started to replace spearmen. Ordonnances issued in 1495 and 1497 regulated the infantry equipment, in theory 1/3 pikemen, 1/3 sword and buckler and 1/3 crossbow or arquebus.

TROOP NOTES

The army based on the provisions of the Ordonnance continued but the bulk of the army consisted of mercenary pikemen. It was the inefficiency of the Flemish pikemen that encourage Maximilian to form the Landsknechts.

HISTORICAL NOTES

TROOP NOTES

From 1481 the French king started using Swiss mercenaries.

SWABIAN LEAGUE

1488 TO 1499 CE

HISTORICAL NOTES

The Swabian League (Schwäbischer Bund) was a mutual defence and peace keeping association of Imperial Estates – free Imperial cities, prelates, principalities, and knights – principally in the territory of the early medieval stem duchy of Swabia, established in 1488 at the behest of Emperor Frederick III of Habsburg. It consisted of 22 Imperial cities, the Swabian knights' League of St. George's Shield, bishops, and princes. It had an army of up to 13,000 men. It was the main supporter of Maximilian in southern Germany. In the Swabian War of January to July 1499 it fought and was defeated by the Swiss in almost every encounter.

TROOP NOTES

The Swabian League and Maximilian German armies are not considered as allies as they completely failed to co-operate in fighting the Swiss.

MAXIMILIAN GERMAN

1493 TO 1519 CE

HISTORICAL NOTES

This list covers Imperial German armies from when Maximilian I became Holy Roman Emperor in 1493.

TROOP NOTES

Maximilian recognised the poor quality of German knights and reorganised them along the lines of the Burgundian territories that he had acquired through his marriage, but in deep formations. The poor quality of these knights meant relying more on troops raised in his own possessions. Maximilian organised a new kind of pikemen in flamboyant dress called landsknechts. These were to take on the Swiss.

ITALIAN WARS FRENCH

1494 TO 1520 CE

HISTORICAL NOTES

In 1494, Charles VIII invaded Italy with the aim of conquering Naples. He justified this by the Angevin claim on the throne of Naples. Initially successful, he was forced to withdraw due to a coalition of Italian States known as the League of Venice. In 1499 Charles' successor Louis XII invaded Italy to claim the throne of Milan as well as Naples. Again, initially successful, the French were defeated by Córdoba at the battles of Cerignola and Garigliano. The next phase of the war saw a grand alliance known as the League of Cambrai formed against the power of Venice. The main contribution was made by the French who defeated the Venetian army at Agnadello in 1509. This success resulted in a new coalition, the Holy League, to fight the French, who themselves allied with the Venetians. The French suffered several defeats, but in 1513 the Holy League started to fragment. After defeating the Swiss at Marignano in 1515, a peace treaty was negotiated.

TROOP NOTES

French native troops needed to be well led to be effective. The ready supply of Swiss and Lansquenets reduced the need for native infantry. Aventuriers were crossbowmen or arquebusiers and were often Gascons.

ITALIAN WARS VENETIAN

1494 TO 1520 CE

HISTORICAL NOTES

At the end of the 15th century, Venice held considerable lands in northern Italy. When the French invaded Italy, the League of Venice was formed to oppose them. Milan and Venice were the main contributors. Having successfully expelled the French, the Venetians found themselves opposed by the Pope who formed the League of Cambrai with the French to break up the Venetian possessions. After the Venetians were defeated at Agnadello in 1509, the Pope realised he had merely replaced the Venetians with the French and so switched sides! The Holy League also included Spain, England, the Holy Roman Empire. A series of victories enabled Venice to reassert its position.

TROOP NOTES

At the start of this period Venetian armies had a large mounted component supplied by the elmeti recruited through the condotta system. This declined over time. Until 1509, Venice fielded pikemen, often mercenaries. This became sporadic after this date. In common with other Italian States, firearms were enthusiastically adopted.

JAMES IV SCOTTISH

1504 TO 1513 CE

HISTORICAL NOTES

This list covers the armies of Scotland in the late 15th century and early 16th century. The most notable battle, Flodden (fought at Branwick in Northumberland), was a disaster for the Scots where James and much of the Scottish nobility were killed.

TROOP NOTES

The first attempts to require a longer pike of at least 18' were attempted by the Scottish Parliament in 1474. James IV set about improving Scottish military capability when he ascended the throne in 1488. Initially he spent money on the navy and artillery. He also created an armour mill staffed by French armourers to produce the latest Milanese armour. Only in 1513 did he attempt to improve the infantry by using 40 French captains to drill the Scottish pikemen in "German" (strictly Swiss) tactics including advancing in echelon. These attempts ended disastrously at the Battle of Flodden. Advancing down a sodden hill, the Scots were cut to pieces by English billmen.

Note: Instead of skirmishers, up to 3 handgunners can be folded into pike TuGs by adding "Experienced/Firearm" to those troops. There are two ways to represent this: 1) ideally replace 1 pike or halberd with a handgunner, or 2) to avoid rebasing place a handgunner skirmish base in front of the file containing them. Upgraded landsknecht hakenbuchsenschutzen can only be used in an upgraded landsnkecht TuG.
